

Carolina-Virginias TMA 2017-2019 President

PRESIDENT

William Joe Allen

President

Randolph Telephone Membership Corporation
Asheboro, North Carolina

William J. "Joe" Allen grew up on a small dairy farm in southeast Randolph County, the eldest of seven children. He completed a degree in agriculture at NC State. Following a stint in research at NCSU, he settled into a career with North Central Farm Credit Service. He retired from his service as area credit manager in 1999. His retirement has been enhanced by a small cattle operation on the family farm.

In 1987, Joe was appointed to complete the term of Burton Macon on the Board of Directors of Randolph Telephone Membership Corporation and has been re-elected to the board since that time. He was privileged to serve as president of Randolph Telephone Company, a subsidiary corporation of RTMC, and currently is president of Randolph Communications.

In addition to his service with Randolph Communications, Joe is active in several civic and professional organizations. He enjoys his work on several committees within his church, Holly Spring Friends Meeting.

Joe resides on the family farm in Ramseur, NC. He cherishes time spent with his wife, Phyllis, and children, Darla Church and Darrin Allen, along with seven grandchildren.
